

Figure 1: Encoding model for MEG data. 306 channel 500ms MEG signal for a single word was compressed to  $306 \times 5$  by averaging 100ms data into a single column. This MEG brain recording data is then encoded from text representation vector to brain activity using ridge regression. The evaluation is done using 5 fold cross-validation. Please see Section 4 for more details.